~~midwifery - Online Etymology Dictionary~~

Midwifery is a protected function in the UK, meaning it's a criminal offence for any person other than a registered midwife, or a registered medical practitioner, to attend on a woman in childbirth (except in emergencies or when in training as a student midwife or medical student). It's also a criminal offence for someone to falsely represent themselves as being on our register and use the protected title of 'Midwife', or falsely represent themselves as possessing midwifery qualifications.
