Section 1: Reading Notes. The first required section of your history journal will be the notes you take from our assigned readings. Reading notes are a required part of your grade in the class. More importantly, reading is the best way for you to learn the basic content of a history course. You must read in this class in order to do well. I cannot possibly cover all the content that you need in lecture – and no one, especially not me, wants me to try!

United States Notes, also known as Legal Tender Notes, succeeded Demand Notes as the main currency form of the United States. They were not redeemable but were receivable for all taxes and debts, which is what persuaded people to circulate them. They had a red seal and were originally issued in denominations of $1, $2, $5, $10, $20, $50, $100 ...

A United States Note, also known as a Legal Tender Note, is a type of paper money that was issued from 1862 to 1971 in the U.S. Having been current for 109 years, they were issued for longer than any other form of U.S. paper money. They were known popularly as "greenbacks", a name inherited from the earlier greenbacks, the Demand Notes, that they replaced in 1862. Often termed Legal Tender Notes, they were named United States Notes by the First Legal Tender Act, which authorized them as a form o

Taking notes in genealogy is a must, not only for recording important information but also for transcribing it onto a more permanent record repository, such as genealogy software. However, you can't just copy down any information you find in any old way. No matter how good you are at interpreting your own handwriting, shorthand, and scribbles in the margins, you need to take a more measured approach to notes in genealogy.
